Read the following carefully and sign at the bottom.

- I understand the cancellation policy is: up to 2 months before the tour begins, full refund minus non refundable $500 deposit. After 2 months, no refunds are available. You are required to purchase your own healthcare travel insurance (compulsory, available from travel agents). You need to in be sound health, be responsible for your own general welfare and have an active sense of repsonsibility for yourself and others in the group. Please check with your doctor for any medical requirements. While we make all efforts to keep to the advertised schedule, the organisers reserve the right to vary the itinerary at anytime as required by local conditions. We attempt to maintain prices as stated and our policy is to absorb minor fluctuations in cost. However if there are any excessive increases in flight or accommodation costs, or currency fluctuations these will be passed on. Your fee covers internal travel, accommodation (single room supplement is available) and meals as stated on the itinerary. Accommodation is based on twin share.
- I have purchased travel healthcare insurance. (This is compulsory.)  I understand that the organ- isers reserve the right to vary the itinerary at any time as required by local conditions and to pass on any currency major fluctuations  I have read through the itinerary and agree with the terms and condi- tions, cancellation policy and fee structures.
